Q3. Read the passage and answer the following questions:

(5 marks)

There was once a very conceited Peacock who had a gorgeous Tail like no other bird. So, when he met a Crane one day, the Peacock scoffed at the Crane's colourless and dull feathers, and Immediately spread his own colourful tail for the Crane to see and Admire.

"Look at my feathers," he boasted, "how they shine in all the Colours of the rainbow, while yours are so pale! I am dressed like A king!"

"That's true," the Crane answered, "but I can fly high above, Among the clouds and the stars and I can see all the beauty of the Earth in all its glory, while you live down here just like any other Cock."

Fine feathers don't make fine birds.

1. Why did the peacock spread his colourful tail?
2. Why does the peacock scoff at the crane?
3. According to the crane how do the peacock live on land?
4. With what are the peacock feathers compared to?
5. What can the crane see?
